24 51. The United States and California Constitutions establishes several points of 25 law that apply to this and any other criminal case:

26 Mr. Martinez is presumed to be innocent of the charges. In other 27 words, Mr. Martinez does not have to prove he is innocent of 28 these charges. Instead, the State must prove his guilt beyond a

1 reasonable doubt or he cannot be convicted. The presumption of
2 innocence on its own is enough to support a Not Guilty verdict
3 unless the jury decides that the evidence shows that the defendant
4 is guilty beyond a reasonable doubt.

5 52.If selected as a juror, could you presume Mr. Martinez is innocent of these 6 charges when they involve matters of a sexual nature regarding a child?

7 Yes: _____ No: _____ Not Sure: _____
8

9 53.Both the State and the defendant are entitled to a fair trial, meaning that the 10 jury must be fair and impartial and must follow the law and cannot be 11 influenced in their verdict by their personal beliefs or life experiences. If 12 selected as a juror, could you set aside your own personal beliefs and life
13 experiences regarding allegations of child sexual contact and sexual assault
14 and render a fair and impartial verdict based entirely on the evidence and the 15 law?

16 Yes: _____ No: _____ Not Sure: _____
17

18 54.For Mr. Martinez to be convicted of the charge here, the State must prove 19 his guilt beyond a reasonable doubt. This means the State must prove that 20 the charge is almost certainly true; otherwise, the Defendant shall be found
21 not guilty. The Defendant is not required to prove anything and does not 22 have to present any evidence, because he is presumed innocent. However, if 23 the State has proved that the Defendant is guilty beyond a reasonable doubt,
24 the Defendant shall be found guilty. Is there any reason you could not follow
25 the law in this regard in a case involving allegations of sexual contact with a

55. The law requires the jury to evaluate the testimony of every witness fairly and impartially. No witness is entitled to be believed automatically or disbelieved automatically. This means that the testimony of a police officer is to be evaluated and considered by the jury like the testimony of any other witness and is not to be given more weight or credibility, or less weight or credibility, just because the witness is a police officer. Is there any reason you could not follow the law in this regard?

Yes: _____ No: _____ Not Sure: _____

56. In the same way, the testimony of an alleged sexual assault victim who is a child is to be evaluated and considered by the jury like other witness testimony, and is not to be given more weight or credibility, or less weight or credibility, just because the witness claims to be a victim of sexual assault or is a child. Is there any reason you could not follow the law in this regard?

Yes: _____ No: _____ Not Sure: _____

57. This is a case that will require you to hear testimony, and perhaps see other evidence, of sexual activity with children under the age of 12. Do you believe that if you are exposed to such evidence it would affect your ability to be fair and impartial?

Yes: _____ No: _____ Not Sure: _____

58. In this case, the defendant is charged with engaging in sexual activity with children under the age of 12. Would the seriousness of that accusation

1 prevent you from being a fair and impartial juror able to hold the prosecution
2 to the burden of proof as stated by the Court?

3 Yes: _____ No: _____ Not Sure: _____
4

5 59. In this case, the defendant is charged with engaging in sexual activity with 6 children under the age of 12. Would the seriousness of these allegations
7 prevent you from being fair and impartial? That is, simply because of the 8 nature of the charges, would you feel compelled to return a verdict of 9 “guilty” even if the State has not proved its case beyond a reasonable doubt?

10 Yes: _____ No: _____ Not Sure: _____
11

12 60. On the other hand, in this case, the defendant is charged with engaging in 13 sexual activity with children under the age of 12. Would the seriousness of 14 these allegations prevent you from being fair and impartial? That is, simply 15 because of the nature of the charges, would you feel compelled to return a
16 verdict of “not guilty” even if the State has proved its case beyond a 17 reasonable doubt?
